Dale A. Orris

Instrumental Music Teacher & Director of Bands

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS:

ATTENDANCE: The student is expected to attend all lessons, rehearsals, and performances.

COURTESY: The student is expected to be courteous to others, demonstrate self-discipline, and assume responsibility for his/her actions.

PRACTICE: The student is expected to practice each day.
First three months - practice at least 10 minutes each day.
After the first three months - practice at least 20 minutes each day.

HELP: The student is expected to seek help and offer help to others, when needed.

BE MUSICAL: The student is expected to read and perform all music as accurately and musically as possible. The musician should not be satisfied with - "That's good enough."

ATTEND CONCERTS: The student is expected to attend other concerts (i.e. Middle School, High School, College & University, professional, etc.). Exposure to quality live music can inspire a desire to achieve and strive for excellence.

BE CAREFUL: The student is expected to demonstrate a concern for instruments & equipment, music, and the environment around him/her. (Be careful! Take care of your instrument, music, furniture, etc.)

TRY IT. YOU MAY LIKE IT. The student is expected to be willing to try new challenges (new kinds of music, other music organizations, etc.).

KEEP WORKING TO DO YOUR VERY BEST: The student is expected to constantly evaluate his/her own work, striving for improvement and excellence. Always strive to become a better musician.
